Welcome

Gathering Song

“Gather Us In” (ELW 532)

Greeting

Prayer of the Day

O God of creation, eternal majesty, you preside over land and sea, sunshine and storm. By your strength pilot us, by your power preserve us, by your wisdom instruct us, and by your hand protect us, through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

First Reading

Psalm 107:1-3,23-32

Read by Tanya G-C

¹“Give thanks for Yhwh’s goodness; God’s love endures forever!” ²Let these be the words of Yhwh’s redeemed, those redeemed from the oppressor’s clutches, ³those brought home from foreign lands, from east and west, from northern lands and southern seas. ²³Some went down to the sea in ships, plying their trade across the ocean; ²⁴they too saw the works of Yhwh, the wonders that God worked on the Deep! ²⁵God spoke and raised a storm wind, lashing up towering waves. ²⁶Flung to the sky, then plunged to the depths, in the ordeal their courage melted away. ²⁷They staggered and reeled like drunkards with all their skill adrift. ²⁸Then they called to Yhwh in their trouble, and God rescued them from their sufferings, ²⁹reducing the storm to a whisper until the waves of the sea were hushed; ³⁰overjoyed with the calm, they were brought safe to the port they were bound for. ³¹Let them thank God for this great love, for the marvels done for all people. ³²Let them praise God in the Great Assembly and give praise in the Council of Elders.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 6:1-13

Read by Jeff V

¹As Christ’s coworkers we beg you not to receive the grace of God in vain. ²For God says through Isaiah, “At the acceptable time I heard you, and on the day of salvation I helped you.” Now is the acceptable time! Now is the day of salvation! We take pains to avoid giving offense to anyone, for we don’t want our ministry to be blamed. ⁴Instead, in all that we do we try to present ourselves as ministers of God, acting with patient endurance amid trials, difficulties, distresses, ⁵beatings, imprisonments and riots; in hard work, sleepless nights and hunger. ⁶We conduct ourselves with innocence, knowledge, patience and kindness in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love, ⁷with the message of truth and the power of God, wielding the weapons of justice with both right hand and left— ⁸regardless of whether we are honored or dishonored, spoken of favorably or unfavorably. We are called impostors, yet we are truthful; ⁹we are called unknowns, yet we are famous; we are said to be dying, yet we are alive; punished, but not put to death; ¹⁰sorrowful, though we are always rejoicing; poor, yet we enrich many. We seem to have nothing, yet we possess everything! ¹¹We have spoken frankly to you, Corinthians; we’ve opened our hearts wide to you. ¹²We’re not holding anything back; you, on the other hand, are holding back your affection from us. ¹³It would be a fair exchange—I speak as to my children—if you’d open your hearts as widely to us as we do to you.

Gospel Song

“Praise to the Lord” (ELW 844) verse 1

Gospel Reading

Mark 4:35-41

³⁵With the coming of evening that same day, Jesus said to the disciples, “Let’s cross over to the other shore.” ³⁶Leaving the crowd behind, they took Jesus in the boat in which he was sitting. There were other boats with them. ³⁷Then a fierce gale arose, and the waves were breaking into the boat so much that it was almost swamped. ³⁸But Jesus was in the stern through it all, sound asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said, “Teacher, doesn’t it matter to you that we’re going to drown?” ³⁹Jesus awoke, rebuked the wind and said to the sea, “Quiet! Be calm!” And the wind dropped and everything was perfectly calm. ⁴⁰Jesus then said to the disciples, “Why were you so frightened? Have you no faith?” ⁴¹But they became filled with fear and said to one another, “Who is this, whom even the wind and sea obey?”

Prayers

Let us come before God in prayer.

Holy God, you gather your people from east and west, north and south. We pray for the mission of the church throughout the world, that your steadfast love may be made known to all peoples. God’s love endures forever;

Hear our prayer.

You laid the foundations of the earth and the waters are the womb of creation. Morning stars sing your name and all creation shouts for joy. We pray for your blessed creation, for all the newly sprouted trees and flowers. We pray for farmers as they seed their crops. We pray that forest fires can be controlled and not destroy your forests. We pray for blessed rain to nourish your creation and help it flourish. God’s love endures forever;

Hear our prayer.

You keep watch over all nations. We pray for countries experiencing violence, hunger and unrest. We especially pray for the peoples of Israel and Palestine, that peace may be achieved. We pray for the neighbors in India as they continue to struggle through this pandemic. Guide worldwide and local organizations in their efforts to establish safety and justice. We pray that medical supplies and vaccines may be shared. God’s love endures forever;

Hear our prayer.

You dwell with us in this faith community at Holy Spirit. We pray for our pastors, council and committee members. Grant them knowledge, patience and kindness, that through their leadership, you may be exalted. We pray for blessings for Pastor Lindsey as they start their parental leave. We pray this is a time of joy, renewal, relaxation and excitement as both they and Danika become parents. May this be a time where they can spend precious time with their family. God’s love endures forever;

Hear our prayer.

Your love endures in all situations. On this Father’s Day, we pray for fathers and grandfathers. We pray for those with broken or strained relationships, for those missing their fathers and for fathers who have lost children. We pray that we can be blessed by the family members we can be with. God’s love endures forever;

Hear our prayer.

You are close to the broken hearted and near those in distress. We pray for those who are experiencing oppression. We especially pray for our indigenous neighbors and stand with them in sadness, as they face the horrible events in Kamloops, BC. Liberate us from the systems and chains that bind us. Help us all to find understanding and reconciliation. Remove the barriers that separate us from one another. God’s love endures forever;

Hear our prayer.

We pray for those who are sick, lonely, isolated and in distress especially: Clarence M, Tom d, Cody M, Ramon J,

Tonia & Jason, Susan K, Tim, Charlotte, Diana M, Pr. Richard R, Darren F, Diane R, Elijah P, William, Daryl A, Eva H, Joanne & Bill and family, the Bradford family as they mourn the passing of Sam, and those in our hearts. Bring us together in care and outreach. God’s love endures forever;

Hear our prayer.

We lift our prayers to you, O God, trusting in your abiding grace. Amen.

Sharing of the Peace

The peace of Christ be with you always.

And also with you.

Offering Prayer

For abundant gifts we give thanks! By willing hands and hearts, by generosity of minds, feet and laughter we are amazed and we ask you God, to continue to call out of us the best that we are, so that the people we meet and the world around us will know your love. Amen.
